NO PLACE FOR WORKS OF ART.

THE TARIFF KEPT UP BY THE MILLS BILL. THE REDEEMING FRATURE OF THE BILL ELIMINATED THE "PREMIER" AND HIS FOLLOWERS-AN INTERESTING CHAPTER OF CONGRES-SIONAL HISTORY RECITED-THROUGH

WITH THE FREE LIST. WASHINGTON, June 29 (Special).-One of the irst acts of " Premier" Mills's followers to-day, in ing the consideration of the " Dark Lantern" bill, was to strike out from the bill almost its only eming feature, the abolition of the unnecessary pariff on foreign works of art. No one asked for doption of this amendment. The placing of works of art on the free list would simply have been a graceful recognition of the abundant courtesies and facilities which foreign govern ments and artists place at the disposal of Americans who go abroad to pursue their studies. The ion of the works of foreign artists duty free would not have conflicted in any way with the adrancement of American art. It was the universal ire of American artists, expressed in many ways, by memorials, by resolutions of the Union League Clab and by individual petitions, that this accidentally retained relic of barbarism should be stricken from our tariff system. But the Demoeratic majority, led chiefly by members from Missouri and Arkansas, with one free-trade Demoerat from Michigan (Mr. Chipman) struck art out of the free list. No objection was made on their own side, because this amendment had been agreed gpon in cancus and the party was pledged to suport those amendments only which the caucus accepted. But there are some few New-York Democrats who will welcome a project which the Republican leaders are said to have in contemplation of calling for a yea and nay vote on this art amendment when the bill is reported from Committee of the Whole to the House.

Mr. Wilson, of West Virginia, in the course of the tariff discussion said he did not know how much the Mills bill would reduce taxation, and he did not care. He wanted to reduce the surplus. This gave Mr. Reed the opportunity to reply that it was then free trade the gentlemen were after and not the reduction of taxation. Mr. Wilson, warming up, denounced the protection system as "robbery."

Mr. Reed said he was glad to hear the opinion of the Democrats on protection, because it showed where the Democrats stood on the question of free

Then Mr. Breckinridge, of Arkansas, began to

Then Mr. Breckinridge, of Arkansas, began to threaten gag-law and to refer to what was called the "Keifer ruling" in the XLVIIth Congress, which opened the way to an interesting reminiscence as to the history of the Democratic party on the question of free discussion of tariff matters.

Mr. Reed said that Mr. Breckinridge had asserted that the gentlemen of his party, in opposing the bill of the XLVIIth Congress, had distinctly and openly avowed that that was their purpose. He (Mr. Reed) had asserted to the contrary. Mr. Reed then read in detail from a speech which he delivered at that time, in which he declared that the Democrats by dilatory motions and every sort of parliamentary tactics had indicated their disposition to beat the bill by any means, "fair or foul." In such matters, it was not the gentlemen from Kentucky (Mr. Carlisle) who was put forward, "but the gentlemen from Illinois (Mr. Springer and Mr. Townshend) are set to do it before his eyes, and this country knows that those gentlemen mean to beat the bill."

The consideration of the free list was completed to-day, and the House began the examination of the dutiable portion of the bill.

NO ACTION ON THE QUARANTINE BILL. DILATORY METHODS OF DEALING WITH IMPORTANT BILLS IN THE HOUSE. Washington, June 29 (Special) .- A good instance of the dilatory methods which the Democratic House of Representatives employs in discharging the public business is afforded in the case of the bill, which recently passed the Senate, to enlarge and perfect the National quarantine service. A bill for that purpose passed the Senate not long ago without a dissenting rote, in view of the fact that the hot weather is now approaching and prompt consideration of the bill ald seem to be necessary.

The House Committee on Commerce, however, has not had a single meeting yet to consider the bill. Nearly every member of the committee favors its Mr. Clardy, the chalrman, howorts that he is unable to bring the committee together. As it passed the Senate the measure appropriates about $500,000 for the establishment of three quarantine stations on the Pacific Coast, the At-Seaboard, the Delaware Breakwater, at Cape Charles and at Sapelo Sound,off the Georgia coast,and two stations on the Gulf of Mexico, at Key West and Chendeleur Islands. The Treasury officials have proved the bill, and so have nearly all the health ranjzations and medical associations in the United

Washington, June 29.—The debate on Mr. Hawley's amendment to the Army Appropriation bill was continued in the Senate to-day. As to the Zalinski gun, he did not know that it was a final and complete

The amendment was further advocated by Messrs. Butler, Reagan, Stewart, Chandler and Evarts, and some talk was occasioned by Mr. Plumb's prediction that no living man would hear a hostile shot on the American continent. In the course of the discussion, the defencelessness of the United States in comparison with the state of active preparation of England and European nations was pictured by Messrs. Hawley and Stewart. No vote, however, was taken on the bill or the amendment.

Mr. Allison reported back the joint resolution ex-tending the appropriation for the present fiscal year-for thirty days from June 30, in the departments of the Government for which the appropriation bills for heat year shall not have become a law. A long discussion took place on the necessity of passing the discussion, Senators Sherman and Edmunds contend-ing that the departments could run on until the first of August without this special law, while Senators Teller and Allison argued that it would not be done without violation of law. The joint resolution was then passed.

The creche was established two years ago. It was designed for an outing-place where mothers could take their infants for a day. Boats will run every hour from the Government pler, from 9 a. m. fill 4 p. m. On the island are a cottage and a tent with a trained nurse and helper in attendance. Pure milk, cots, and hammocks are also supplied. Last year 1,779 tickets were distributed and a larger number will be issued this year. It cost $1,043.86 to maintain this practical charity last year.

GERMAN SINGERS FESTIVAL.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE MEETING IN BALTI-

MORE-A GREAT COMPETITION FOR PRIZES. Baltimore, June 29.-Three thousand German singers will attend the festival of the Singing Societies Confederation of the Eastern States, to be held in thi city from June 30 to July 4. The singers will be accompanied by their wives and friends to the number of about 5,000, and the Maryland German Singir Societies are making extensive preparations for the entertainment of the visitors. The railroads have agreed to sell round trip tickets at single fare. For four days Ball more will ring with German music. William E. Helmendahl, who has been selected for the difficult position of musical director of the festival, is one of Baltimore's ablest musicians. He is the eader of the German Macnnerchor and of the harmonic Orchestra. He is a native of Elberfeld, Germany, received his musical education at Wiesbaden and Brussels, and came to this country in 1884. For several weeks he has been visiting the larger cities belonging to the confederation and rehearsing the choruses to be sung at the concert. The prize singing contest will be the feature of the festival, but the Baltimore societies will not take part in it. The competing societies will be divided into three classes, according to the number of their singers. In the first class those having forty singers or over will sing; in the second, those of twenty-five to thirtynine; and in the third, those of sixteen to twentyfour singers. The societies competing for the prize in the first class are the Arion and Germania, of Newark, N. J.; Junger Maennerchor, of Philadelphia; Saengerbund, of Washington; Arion, of Brooklyn; Saengerbund, of Hartford, and the Philadelphia Maennerchor. They will all sing the song, "Fruehling, by Rheinberger. The prize song for the second class is "Waldmorgen," by Koellner, and the competing societies are, Frohsinn, of Altoona, Penn.; Concordia, of Bridgeport, Conn.; Williamsburg Saegnerbund; Zoellennerchor and Sozial Quartet Club, of Brooklyn Phoenix, of Newark, N. J.; Arion, of Philadelphia Concordia, of Waterbury, Conn.; Schwaebischer Saengerbund and Franz Abt Schueler, of New-York; Arion of Jersey City Heights, N. J.; Liedertafel and Orpheus, of Buffalo. In the third class, the Concordia, of Brooklyn; Maennerchor,, of Lancaster, Penn.; Kreutzer Quartet Club, of New-York; Philadelphia Quartet Club, and Concordia, of Philadelphia; Harmonie, of Reading, Penn.; Virginia, of Richmond; Liedertafel, of Trenton, N. J.; Liederkranz, of Syracuse, N. Y., and Eintracht, of Newark, N. J., will compete and the prize song selected is "Die Liebe kann Nicht Enden," by L. Liebe. In former festivals there have been frequent complaints about the alleged injustice of the To avoid this strict regulations have been adopted. The judges, five in number, are to be ap pointed by a commission consisting of L. Schneider, Joseph Rafber and Ernest Knabe. Their names are not to be made public until they have given their decision on July 4. Each judge is ignorant of the names of his colleagues. The decisions are to be made immediately after the singing, in writing, and are to be inclosed in sealed envelopes, which are not be opened until July 4. The judges have to consider intonation, precision, declamation and execution. Three prizes will be given to each class. They will consist of silver, laurel and oak wreaths on red silk plush, with an appropriate inscription.

The entertainment of the visitors will begin with a reception at the Concordia Opera House to-morrow. The same evening there will be a grand torchlight For Sunday, an excursion has been planned to Bay Ridge, which resort has been reserved for the singers exclusively. Two steamers and several special trains will carry the guests down to the resort. Bay Ridge a concert will be given by a mixed chorus and also by about ten different bands. On Monday morning the National delegates' convention will be held, and the place for holding the next festival three years hence will be selected. In the afternoon the first prize concert will take place at the Academy of Music, and in the evening a concert will be given at the same place by a chorus composed of as many singers as can be accommodated upon the stage, which is to be enlarged for the purpose. On Tuesday morning the singers will be shown through the city. The after noon and evening have been set apart for another prize concert and a general concert. A singers' parade, under the command of Colonel H. C. Tieck, chief marshal, will take place on Wednesday, in which the State militia and fire department are expected to take part. For the afternoon a picnic has been arranged at the Schuetzen Park, where the prizes will be distributed to the winning societies.

A guarante fund of $25,000 has been raised by citizens to cover any deficit in the cost of entertaining the societies. The Brooklyn societies coming to the festival are: Hermannssohne Maennerchor, Hessischer Saengerbun 1, Schwaebischer Saengerbund, Williamsburg Saengerbund, Maennergesangverein, Arion, Concordia Maennerchor, Haydn Maennerchor, Schneider Gesangverein Harmonic, Williamsburg Boss Bakers' Gesangverein, Norddeutsche Harmonic, Philharmonia Maennercher, Zoellner Maennercher, Brooklyner Maennerchor, Brooklyner Saengerbund, Brooklyner Quartet Club, Deutscher Liederkranz, Caecilia, Grand-st.; Friedrich Gluck Quartet Club, Social Quartet Club, Concordia Quartet Club. OVERCROWDING IN TENEMENTS.

VIGOROUS MEASURES OF THE HEALTH BOARD-APPOINTMENTS TO THE SUMMER CORPS.

The Health Board yesterday decided to take vigorous steps to prevent the overcrowding of tenement houses in "The Bend" of Mulberry-st. and elsewhere by Italians. The law lays upon the owners of tenement houses the duty of preventing overcrowding when they receive notice from the Health Board that there is overcrowding in their houses. Failure to heed the board's notice makes the owner of a tene ment house liable to arrest, and he can be fined $10 or imprisoned ten days for each day during which he falls to obey the law. The board yesterday passed a resolution," directing Sanitary Superintendent Day to enforce the law.

Forty-one young physicians were appointed members of the summer corps to visit tenement houses during two months in the hot weather. The corps will be increased to fifty next month. The physicians will report for duty on July 5 and will begin work that day under the orders of Dr. Cyrus Edson. Each physician will receive $100 per month for his services. A BIG RISE IN JUNE COFFEE.

The Coffee Exchange was the scene of much excitement yesterday morning over the sudden rise of the June option from 13 to 21.05 cents a pound. the first call the market was steady, but after the call June was bid up, to the consternation of the shorts, who found that the June coffee was all held by S. Gruner & Co. and Crossman Brothers, the leaders of the bull clique. The advance, which was 8.05 cents, the biggest ever recorded on one option in the Exchange. The closing price was 20.50, or a ne vance on the opening of 7 1-2 cents a pound. It was thought that the only legitimate sale made was 500 bags, sold at the highest figure of the day. The total sales for the day were 50,750 bags, of which only 5,000 bags were June coffee.

A SELF-CONFESSED DESERTER. From The Pittsburg Press.

From The Pittsburg Press.

For the first time in several years "The New-York Times" did the Republican party a service yesterday. It announced that it would support the Democratic Presidential ticket. That is perfectly right on the part of that paper, as it is the privilege of every citizen in this country to support which party he prefers, but "The Times" does a special service to the Republican cause in stating the course which it will pursue, because it now for the first time shows its true colors. It is a Democratic, British froe trade organ.

INCREASING BROOKLYN'S BUDGET.

OVER HALF A MILLION ADDED TO LAST YEAR'S AP-PROPRIATION-A COMPARISON.
Brooklyn City tax budget for 1889 was adopted by the Board of Estimate yesterday, subject to approval by the Board of Aldermen. The total appropriation for city and county expenses is over $10,000,000 and the increase is nearly $250,000 in the city budget and over that amount in the county, making a total increase of over half a million. Less money is appropriated for educational purposes, less to pay the city debt, less for interest on the debt, less for the assessment department and less for de-ficiencies in collection than last year, but in all other branches of the city government the same amounts as last year or increased ones are recommended. The principal facreases are in the Police, Health, Buildings, Parks and City Works departments. The figures in detail for the city budget are as follows, compar

Interest on city debt . 1,532,980 2 35,204 2 325,172 0 1,300,500 50 28,320 00 100,000 00 85,000 00

The increase in assessments will not offset this additional burden unless property is rated much higher than heretofore. Last year the tax rate averaged $2.75 on $100. By the new budget the city will gain 100 policemen, a new smallpex hospital and a variety of needed improvements in Prospect Park.

FILLING A CHAIR IN THE UNIVERSITY. PROFESSOR STODDARD, OF CALIFORNIA, TO COME TO NEW-YORK.

new chair of the English Language and Litera ture in the University of the City of New-York was filled yesterday by the appointment of Professor Richard H. Stoddard, of the University of California. The decision was reached by a joint commission, consisting of seven members, who were empowered by the council to make a selection from a list of ten excellent andidates. The commission devoted about a fortnight to a careful examination of the credentials of the several candidates, and finally awarded the prize an American who is the author of more than a dozen works on literary subjects. Professor Stoddard's candidacy was indorsed by the Rev. Dr. Washington Gladden, Professor Max Muller, of Oxford Professor J. Earle, President Seelye, of Amherst; the Rev. Dr. E. W. Donald, Professor Arthur Napler, of Oxford, Professor F. D. Child, of Harvard, and by Professors A. S. Cook and E. S. Holden, of the University of California.

Professor Stoddard is a native of Middlebury, Ver His father was a well-known professor, and one of the authors of Andrew's & Stoddard's Latin Grammar. After his graduation from Amherst, at the age of twenty-two, he went into business for a time and her resumed his studies at Oxford, returning in 1886 to assume the professorship of English in the University of California.

DEATH OF RICHARD IRVIN.

Richard Irvin, an old and respected merchant of New-York, died at his country house at Oyster Bay on Wednesday afternoon. He was born at Glasgow, on July 2, 1799, and after completing his studies at the university there he came to this country in 1823 on a visit to relatives. In the following year he returned to engage in business with his uncle, Thomas Irvin, who was a well-known shipping merchant at No. 198 Front-st. About twenty-five years ago the firm, which had become Richard Irvin & Co., added banking to its commission business and removed Larkin and B. Carroll beat B. Robinson and S. Brown to No. 37 William-st. The firm was founded in 1787,

Mr. Irvin was that of an active merchant who never sought political honors. His business and family relations were his career. His mercatile honor was never impeached while his private life was distinguished chiefly by purity and charity. He was for many years presiden of the St. Andrew's Society and he was always ready to aid any of his countrymen in distress. He was a director of the Mechanics' Bank for over fifty years and had frequently acted temporarily as its president. He was the oldest member of the Chamber of Commerce, having

Mr. Irvin married fifty-six years ago a daughter of the Rev. Dr. Alexander Proudfit, of Salem, Washington County, N. Y., who survives him. Four of the nine children born to him are still living; the Rev. Dr. Irvin, secretary of the Board of Home Missions; Richard Irvin, jr, a partner with his father; Mrs. James A. Burden, and Mrs. George Griswold Gray, all of this city. Mr. Irvin was an earnest Presbyterian and for forty years was a member of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Irvin died from the debility consequent on old age, but had been confined to the house only about two months. The funeral will be held at his city home, No. 21 West Twenty-first-st., where he had lived over forty years, to-day. The burial will be at Greenwood.

COFFEE AND CIGARS AT AUCTION.

By order of United States Marshal McMahon, Burlett Dennis, auctioneers, sold yesterday, at No. 29 Burling Slip, 17,400 seized Havanna cigars and 204 bags of Laguayra coffee. There was a large attendance and spirited bidding. The coffee brought from 9 1-2 5-8 cents a pound and the cigars from $62 to

A lady of Portland who was salmon fishing near the eastern shore of the Province of Quebec, "landed a forty-two pounder after a full hour's struggle." A New York lady has a better record. While fishing in the matrimonial waters at one of the summer resorts a year ago, she landed a one hundred and forty-two pounder, after a six weeks' struggle. He was not a salmon, however. He was more of a sucker, and the lady is now sorrs she caught him.—(Norristown Her-ald.

THE WORK AT CHICAGO.

REPUBLICAN FEELING OVER THE TICKET.

WE CAN WIN NOW, IF EVER. From The Lewiston (Me.) Journal.

If, marshalled by two such strong, true and pepular men as Harrison and Morton, with a ticket enlisting the business men, the workingmen and the old soldiers, with a banner whose inscriptions appeal to every patriotic instinct, every American interest and every humble fireside in the land—if on these terms the Republican party can't defeat the Free Trade. Cleveland-wedded, England-loving, vote-suppressing Democracy—if the fiag can't overcome the bandanna—when can the party hope to triumph!

The Republicans of the country have already begun to feel the thrill of victory. The Lewiston (Me.) Journal.

A PROPHECY OF VICTORY.

From The Springfield Union.

The ticket will be elected. It will grow in favor as the people study it, and the men named on it will give the country an Administration than which no better has been known since Abraham Lincoln. FRIENDS OF THE WORKINGMEN.

From The Trenton Times. Harrison and Morton are the friends of the work ingman. Their records prove that this is so. A MEMORABLE COMBINATION.

From The St. Albans Messenger. The association of these names of strong men is nost fortunate, and is destined to work such a revolution in politics as to be remembered along with of "Tippecance and Tyler too." BOTH REFLECTION AND ENTHUSIASM EXCITED

From The Providence Dispatch. Though the platforms furnish material for a good deal of caim thinking and reasoning, the hurrah will do much to enliven the proceedings, and the hurrah is all with Harrison.

YIELDING A HEARTY WELCOME. From The Boston Traveller.

It is not too much to say that the welcome given to it is unbounded. SOMETHING TO BE PROUD OF.

From The Philadelphia Telegraph. With such a standard-bearer—a man, a soldier, a statesman, of pure character, of fame renowned—his party can wage against its enemy an aggressive con-test.

CERTAIN TO GET UNITED SUPPORT.

Ohlo wanted Sherman, and no paper was more strenuous than "The Leader" in urging his claims upon the Convention. But, like all Ohlo Republicans, "The Leader" bows to the will of the Convention. No paper in the United States will be more zealous than "The Leader" in advocating the election of Harrison and Morton.

A FLATTERING OUTLOOK. From The Trenton Times. We never knew nominations received with such cardial and unanimous approval. There is not a single growler. This is almost phenomenal, and is most auspicious.

MORTON HAS A NATIONAL REPUTATION. From The Detroit Tribune.

The Detroit Thouse.

The nominee for Vice-President is the right man in the right place, and he halls from the right State. The record of his private and public life is all the indorsement he needs. It is the record of an honorable, successful business man and a splendidly equ'pped statesman. At various times he has been chosen to represent the Government in positions which required the highest intelligence, the soundest judgment, and the strictest integrity to fill acceptably, and in each instance has he proven his capacity and fidelity. MAINE PROMISES VIGOROUS HELP.

From The Bangor Whig (Congressman Boutelle's paper. In September Maine, whose every industry is threatened in the Mills bill, will inaugurate the campaign with a grand Republican majority that will carry joy to the hearts of Republicans in every State in the Union.

WHERE THE JEWISH VOTE WILL GO. From The Washington Critic. The Hebrew vote will be captured by Benjamin an

A SATISFACTORY OUTLOOK From The Waterbury Republican.

We do not see now why this ticket may not be sup-ported by all who prefer the Republican party in power to the Democratic. The tariff issue and a clean campaign is the programme which this ticket, in oppostion to Cleveland and Thurman, promises. HARRISON THE NATURAL CHOICE AFTER BLAINE. From The Trenton Gazette,

From The Trenton Gazette,

With Blaine, the matchless, out of the field, the mind of the party seemed naturally and by common consent to turn to Benjamin Harrison, the great and gallant Indiana leader, as the Republican standard hearer. He is everything that the brain and heart of the Republican party could desire. He represents all that is highest and best in the purposes and character of the party. He is without spot or blemish, a sound, strong man: plysically, morally, politically. He is in every respect the worthy descendant of a distinguished American partiol. He is sound to the core on every living issue of the day. As an American citizen and as a politician he measures up to the full stature and present requirements of the Presidential office. He fills the bill.

STRONG AT BOTH ENDS. From The New-York Press. After all it is doubtful if a better ticket could have been nominated. It is strong at both ends. Strong in patriotism, strong in statesmanship, strong in patriotism, strong in statesmanship, strong in legal and business attainments, and long before election it will be so strong in the hearts of every true American that it will be elected by an overwhelming majority next November. NEW-JERSEY WILL SUPPORT The nomination of Levi P. Morton, of New-York, for Vice-President, will also be strong and popular in New-Jersey after the first feeling of disappointment over the failure to select her brilliant favorite, william Walter Phelps, shall have subsideds Mr. Morton is a gentleman of the highest character and attainments, a stanch and high-principled Republican, and a firm friend of protection to American labor.

GENERAL HARRISON'S PERSONAL WORTH. From The Boston Transcript (Ind.)

The nominee is not, however, dependent on his ancestors for his fame, for his achievements have been conorably accomplished by his own services in the army in the court-room and in the Senate chamber of the United States. BLAINE WILL NOT DISAPPEAR. From The Philadelphia Inquirer.

The country will hear from Blaine next fall, and the party he has served so long and so faithfuly will again be under renewed obligations to him.

THE REST THING POSSIBLE From The Memphis Avalanche (Ind. Dem.) Under all the circumstances the nomination of Harrison is the best that could have been made.

IT WILL GET ITS DESERTS. From The Wilmington (Del.) News. It ought to be a winning ticket. THE PARTY CEMENTED IN HARMONY.

From The Waterbury (Conn.) Republican. Harrison and Merton, constituting the Presidential ficket, should constitute a bend strong enough to bind together all minds and all hearts in the Republican party. ALL SIGNS POINT TO VICTORY.

From The Worcester Spy.

If (the Republican party) will make an energetic and inspiring canvass. It deserves to succeed, and all the political portents presage victory. NATIONAL PRIDE IN MORTON.

From The Wilkesbarre Newsdealer. His nomination will give great satisfaction to the country, and New-York in particular.

MORTON'S NAME MEANS SOMETHING. From The Harrisburg Call. He is not a mere appendage to the ticket, he is something more. He will reduce the majority of President Cleveland (only 1.147) to a remarkable extent in the Empire State if he does not wipe it out

DEMOCRATS CONCEDE HARRISON'S STRENGTH. From The Buffalo Courier (Dem.)

It is doubtful whether the Republican party from the material before the Chicago Convention could have made a stronger nomination. A SOLID NORTH HIGHLY PROBABLE. From The Buffalo Express. With New-York and Indiana made sure, what State that was not on the wrong side in the Rebellion can now be considered doubtful? THE SECEDERS OF EIGHTY-FOUR EXPOSED. From The Brooklyn Standard-Union.

The men and organs who went over to the Democracy because they favored free trade went to stay, but the nomination of Harrison and Morton forces them to come out in their true colors, and makes it impossible for them longer to pose as Independents or advocates of Civil Service Reform. RUSK'E FOLLOWERS TALK UP. From The Milwankee Wisconsin.

Wisconsin may be trusted to do her duty. THERE WAS FAIR PLAY AT CHICAGO. From The Binghamton Republican. All the candidates were well treated, and the eminations were fairly and discreetly made.

SPIRITS OF TURPENTINE WILMINGTON, June 29 .- Turpentine eniet at RalGRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKBIS.

FEATURES OF NEW-YORK DEALINGS. A better tone prevailed in both the cash and the option wheat markets yesterday. Spot lots were 1-48 1-2 cent better, and the purchases of shipper amounted to 104,000 bushels. There was more active amounted to 105,000 bushels. There was more activity in the speculation, and while a large part of the gain was lost in the late trading the market closed firm. Prices generally were 1.823-8 cent better, as follows: June and July, 86 7-8; August, 88 1-8; as follows: June and July, 86 7-8; August, 88 1-8; September, 89 1-8; October, 90 1-4; November, 91 3-8; December, 92 3-8; May, 1889, 97 1-8 cents. Shippers were good buyers of corn, taking 120,000 bushels, and the spot market was fully steady. The option market tended downward and final figures were off 3-8-21-4 cent for July at 53 5-8, August at 54 7-8, September at 55 7-8 and October at 56 1-2 cents. Oats September at 55 7-8 and October at 56 1-2 cents. Oats were dull and 3-821-4 cent lower at 35 1-8 for July 31 3-4 for August and 31 cents for September. Lard declined 5@8 points, as follows: July, 28 36; August, declined 5@8 points, as follows: July, 28 38; August, 28 37; September, 28 40; October, 28 37.

The receipts of flour and grain reported yesterday, at New-York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Boston were as follows: Wheat, 19,380 bushels; corn, 21,854 bushels; oats, 81,789 bushels; total grain, 123,023 bushels; flour, 29,397 packages. At Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Louis the arrivals were: Wheat, 52,867 bushels; corn, 131,504 bushels; oats, 140,692 bushels; total grain, 325,063 bushels; flour, 22,425 barrels.

THE TRADE IN CHICAGO. Chicago, June 29 (Special).—In the wheat pit to-day, there was a reasonably steady feeling until after New-York had closed. Then Hutchinson, presumably to break the harket to the "put" price and to get action on the million "puts" he was credited with holding, sold the price off nearly 1-2 cent; July and August closed at the low points of the session, 79 3-8 and 79 1-2 cents. Putchingen several hours the range was within 1-2 cent. Hutchis was almost as heavy a seller as on Thursday. Block wheat, presumably, went overboard, and there was some other local selling. New-York, however, was strong for a while. Cables were again higher. The clearances for the day were over 100,000 bushels, and there was a fair the day were over 100,000 bushels, and there was a fair export business at the scaboard. The receipts of over, 230 cars, were a little above the expectations; but the out inspection was enormous—562,000 bushels. The estimates for Saturday were 175 cars. The car lots opened the price 5-8 cent lower, but the price railied a little-The trading was not specially significant. The close was almost at the bottom, at 47.3-8 cents for July and 48.5-8 cents for August. The charters were only for a moderate amount, about 122,000 bushels. The receipts of oats were 135 cars; the estimates for Saturday, 132. The range was all day within 3-8 cent, July opening at 30.7-8 and closing at 30.1-2 cents. There was little soing on in the provision pit except the "changing", incident to the near approach of a desivery day.

THE PETROLEUM MARKET.

NEWS FROM THE FIELD AND RANGE OF PRICES Dulness was the chief feature of the crude oil mar-ket yesterday, and yet the progress made toward the popular 60-cent basis was a back-handed one. The bears hammered prices down to 72 5-8 cents, but these operations were followed by a rally of 1 cent. The news from the oil fields was not important, but the trade is looking for a good pool around Bak town, and when the Calhoun and Gold Faun wells are drilled through the producing sand they ought to gushers" of some magnitude, or at least producer of sufficient magnitude to be pointers to a region of new supply. If they do not furnish excellent results their operations will be a disappointment to the bears. The refined market enjoyed a good demand, and the inquiry forced an advance of 1-8 cent per gallon for barrel and case oil, an indication perhaps of the coming foreign activity, which is dreaded by the bears, who wish to furnish cheap crude oil to the Standard. Speculation is practically dead in the certificate market; perhaps actual destruction of stocks and an inevitable inquiry from shippers will furnish the support that the customary leaders are withholding from the speculative position. Such a support is more valuable in the end than the manipulation of speculators, and it appears to be the only reliance now left to holders. The market closed strong at virtually best figures.

The range of prices and the total dealings were as
